

Environmental Education Training

Wolf Creek National Fish Hatchery

BACK-TO-BACK Workshops!

Project Wild!

Wednesday, July 20

8:00am-3:30pm CST

Geared toward Elementary – Middle School!

Project WILD

Project WILD's core curriculum resources include the Project WILD K-12 Curriculum and Activity Guide as well as the Aquatic WILD K-12 Curriculum and Activity Guide, which focuses on aquatic wildlife and ecosystems. Spanish-language versions of activities from both of these guides can be found in Proyecto WILD.

WHERE:

Wolf Creek National Fish Hatchery
50 Kendall Rd
Jamestown, KY 42629

COST:

Fees include programming, materials, and curriculum guides.

- Project Wild:$15
- Project Wild Aquatic:$15

CONTACT:

Moria Painter, Environmental Education/Outreach Specialist 270-343-3797 or
moria_painter@fws.gov

Pre-registration is required for both workshops.
Deadline: July 9th

Aquatic Wild!

Thursday, July 21

8:00am-3:00pm CST

Geared towards Elementary – Middle School.

Dress comfortably, rubber boots a plus and please bring a reusable water bottle or cup.

Project WILD

